SPECIAL NOVEMBER PROGRAMS

Nonfiction Studio: Thurs., Nov. 7, 12:00 pm

The new Nonfiction Studio offers an opportunity for writers of memoir, personal essays, rants, and other forms of creative nonfiction to share and receive constructive feedback on works-in-progress. No prior writing experience is required, just a willingness to share work and offer and accept peer feedback.

Engineering Challenge with SMIST: Thurs., Nov. 7, 4:30 pm

Join engineers from the Schoharie Mohawk Institute for Science and Technology to learn how to make a working car powered by a mousetrap! Open to grades 4-8.

Sewing for Kids part 2: Sat., Nov. 16, 11:00 am

Our beginner sewing series continues with a drawstring bag workshop! Participants should be familiar with threading a needle, tying knots, and sewing a running stitch (all covered in our last workshop). Open to kids ages 8 to 14.

Please note: This workshop includes supervised use of a hot iron. If you do not want your child to use the iron, please make a note in your registration.

Detective Fiction Workshop: Sat., Nov. 16, 12:00 pm

Registration required, begins Oct 23.

Award-winning crime fiction author Libby Cudmore will lead this writing workshop for those interested in writing detective fiction. Libby will lead exercises to help authors create an original detective character whose exploits and adventures can drive a mystery plot forward and maybe even form the basis of an entire series. Space is limited and registration is required at <https://bit.ly/cudmoredetectives>. Open to adults and teens 14 and older.

Libby for Overdrive: Tuesday, Nov. 19, 10:30 am

Are you interested in using your device to download books, audiobooks and magazines? Are you currently downloading but paying for your books? Kim Zimmer will introduce you to the Libby App on the Overdrive platform and demonstrate how you can get your books and magazines for free. All you need is your library card. Participants should bring your laptop, tablet, kindle/Fire, phone, power cords, Amazon passwords and your library card. Don't have a library card? Stop into your local library and staff will assist you. Reminder for a new card you will need identification and a piece of mail.

Teen Craft: Personalize a Journal: Tuesday, Nov. 26, 6:00 pm

Use our craft supplies to decorate a notebook! November is a great time to try a gratitude journal, but you could also make a D&D campaign log, a bullet journal, a place for stories and poems, or anything else you can think of. All supplies provided. Open to middle and high schoolers only.
